MEYER RIEGGER WOLFF

Meyer Riegger and Galerie Jocelyn Wolff have been exploring and developing the Asian market for the last ten years with different approaches, but in a very complementary way. From 2025, the two galleries will join forces and continue exploring Asia through the new gallery Meyer Riegger Wolff, based in Seoul, South Korea. The gallery will open its inaugural exhibition in September 2025.

Marking the debut of Meyer Riegger Wolff at Frieze Seoul 2025, the presentation brings together works that reflect on the human figure and its entanglement with nature, supernature, and the surrounding world. Featuring artists represented by both galleries – Miriam Cahn and Santiago de Paoli – the exhibition centers on the transformative nature of the human form: its vulnerability, mutability, and expressive potential. Alongside their works, pieces by Horst Antes, Colette Brunschwig, Peter Dreher, Alma Feldhandler, Sheila Hicks, Jeewi Lee, Isa Melsheimer, Jonathan Monk, Elodie Seguin, and Francisco Tropa further explore these relationships through myth, memory, abstraction, and materiality.

A dedicated section will also offer a glimpse into the inaugural exhibition at Meyer Riegger Wolff, Seoul, featuring selected works on paper from the salon de dessins show.
